“Requiescat in Pace”

We Remember

Rev. Susan Blain

“After graduating, Sue joined the Sisters of Notre Dame De Namur and later answered the call to become an ordained Minister in the United Church of Christ. Rooted in a desire to help to make God's goodness known, Sue's work as a community organizer in Baltimore promoting and addressing social issues like fair housing, unemployment, and food insecurity, was motivated by a commitment to justice and compassion. ‘How Good is the Good God’ remained her motto throughout her life.”

We Remember

Mary Connor

“After graduation, Mary earned her MBA at Columbia University Business School. She had an illustrious career at Morgan Stanley, where over the course of 17 years, she earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues and competitors. Mary was brilliant, beautiful and influential but she will be remembered most for her devotion to her family, as a loving wife to Mark Gallagher, and an adoring mother to her four children Alex, Catherine, Carolyn, and Laura”

We Remember

Maria Leavey

After earning a Masters Degree from Penn State, Maria moved back to Washington and worked as a consultant for Howard Dean and many other political figures. After her death, the Campaign for America's Future created an annual award in her memory named the 'Maria Leavey Tribute Award' in honor of the person they called "the quintessential unsung progressive hero ... who rarely received the recognition she deserved during her influential life."

We Remember

Linda Lefemine Juliano

“Linda lived a life marked by passion, unselfishness and a desire to always put others ahead of herself. Linda married Philip Juliano and raised four children. She was always known as a woman of many talents, boundless energy and worked hard to care for all those around her.

Linda was involved in many nonprofit efforts throughout her life, including work with the Junior League of America, Visiting Nurses Association and Catholic Charities of America.”

We Remember

Mary Ann Haran Quinn

“Following college, Mary Ann worked as a lobbyist in DC with Tip O'Neill. After her stint in Washington, she attended Ohio Northern Law School and returned to New Haven with her husband John and three children where she started her own law practice. Mary Ann was overwhelmingly generous, dedicating her time and energy to various charities. She was the co-founder of LifeHaven, a homeless shelter for women & children, and Past President of Catholic Charity League.”

We Remember

Nancy Robertson Harrington

“Nancy, a loving wife, mother and grandmother, became a clinical psychotherapist, and started a private practice in the Fairfax area, specializing in individual and group therapy. She was a member of several professional organizations, including the Greater Washington Society for Clinical Social Work, of which she served as President from 2014-2016, and the Mid-Atlantic Group Psychotherapy Society, of which she served as Secretary on the Board of Directors.”

We Remember

Kathleen Talty

“Kathleen was a daughter, sister, cousin, aunt, and friend of fierce loyalty and endless generosity. She is remembered as a tenacious community advocate, an unforgettable neighbor, and a beloved “Kackie” to children of all ages. She was a proud and active alumna of Our Lady of Mercy Academy in Syosset, NY and Trinity College, where she served as class Student Association President. After receiving a JD from the University of Baltimore, she practiced employment law at Kruchko & Fries and FordHarrison LLP until her retirement.”

We Remember

Marie Elise (Doll) deGolian Sullivan

“The combination of her warmth, her smile and her physical beauty was simply stunning. Moving to Maine, she worked at Unum for 20 years in the insurance industry then became the Director of Crossroads, a program for battered and abused women. She moved to Minnesota, married and raised a family. St. Pius X High School, Class of '71 along with Doll's family and friends set up the 'Doll deGolian Tuition Assistance Endowment Fund' in her memory.”

We Remember

Joan Brooks Wooldridge, MD

“Joan graduated with honors from Trinity with a Bachelors in Music. Shortly thereafter, she married her husband James and in 1981, they were both admitted to Eastern Virginia Medical School. Between medical school and residencies, Joan and James had three beautiful children. Joan loved working with children and became a pediatric doctor as well as the director of several Children’s Choirs. She was devoted to her faith and the musical tradition of the Catholic Church.”

We Remember

Anne Renee Colbert

“Renee graduated with a double major in Art History and French. She married her husband, Robert and had one son, Brian. After spending her early career in the business sector, she found her true calling in her later years working for the local community; first for the Montgomery County government and most recently for Strathmore Music Center in Rockville, where she spent the last 10 years on the event staff working many major concerts and performances.”

We Remember

Rosemary G. Rennicke

“Rosemary was passionate about art and had a career that spanned 50 years as an author, editor, writer, producer, consultant and researcher of numerous books, special interest publications and magazines. She worked as an Associate Editor at Lennox and the Franklin Mint where she met her beloved husband and life partner, Dan Piscitello. They found a home to renovate outside of Princeton in 2012 and finally moved in after the work was finished in 2018.”

We Remember

Sonsire Ramos-Soler

“Sonsire Ramos-Soler graduated from Trinity with a double major in French and Art History and enrolled in the Institute des Etudes Européens, Aix-en-Provence, France.

Sonsire returned home and in 1978, she graduated from the University of Puerto Rico Law School. Sonsire worked as an attorney and was later appointed a Judge.”

We Remember

Mary Anne Pacious Stasiak

“After Trinity, Mary Anne earned a Masters in Health Administration from Duke University. She worked at Fairfax Hospital in Virginia before relocating to Fort Myers in 1996 to begin a teaching career. Mary Anne married her husband, Chris and raised three daughters. She loved literature, traveling and spending time with her knitting group. She was an avid dog rescuer and volunteered with Colonel Potter Cairn Rescue Network for many years.”

We Remember

Elizabeth Walsh

“Betsy was the beloved Head of Reader Services at the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington DC for 43 years. She was known for her unparalleled knowledge of Folger’s collections.

Betsy was a guide and friend to many visitors at the library, but she was most known for her warmth, friendliness, and willingness to share her valuable expertise with all.”
